

Dotted Notes and Rests

Dotted Notes

When there is a dot after a note, its duration is increased by half its original value.

Rests

A rest is a musical silence. There are different rests which represent different lengths of time.

Moving Fingers

Now that you can play the four notes B, A, G, C and D, let's practise moving from one to another smoothly.

Practise moving your fingers to change notes using this rhythm:
